From July 1st, to August, the amount of funds in New York was greatly diminished, and in Charleston greatly increased. This was undoubtedly caused by the revoluion in domestic exchanges.

Britain, appears, from the balance sheet made up to the 5th of July, to be very favorable. We annex a statement showing the yearly returns.

OR, LIFE AND ADVENTURES OF ALONZO.

Servant of many Masters. Translated from the Spanisl Doctor Geronimo de Alcala, a native of Segovia. Price Tig.

The Translator begs leave to present the public with a wold intrinsic merit, much unlike those ephemeral productions the day, with which the press has so long grossed; though devoid of faults, yet it is deserving of the highest praise, be a master piece of its kind. It was printed in Madrid, in it and, like the plays of Shakspeare has descended from age to a master piece of its kind. It was printed in Madrid, in it and, like the plays of Shakspeare has descended from age to a made gained new honor at every transmission. It is strange to a work of such superlative merit should never before have be translated into our language; but such appears to be the fact may be perceived in perusing the following high eulogium; nounced on it, by George Borrow, Esq., agent of the Bri and Foreign Bible Society, and favorably known through United States as the author of the Bible in Spani, Zingali, & There exists, says that eminent author, in the Spanish; Jagage, a book entitled Alonzo, the Servant of many mast composed by Dr. Geronimo de Alcala, a native of the civentry; perhaps, with the single exception, of the great wolf Gervantos, there is no novel that can compete with it grave, quiet humor, while for a knowledge of the human and acute observation, we do not believe its equal is to be for Gil Blas, which, by the bye, is a piratical compilation from and acute observation, we do not believe its equal is to be for Gil Blas, which, by the bye, is a piratical complation from Segovian Doctor, who is made to serve all masters, from sacristan of the Clurch in an obscure village in Old Castile the proof. BY THE SOUTHERN MAIL.

Philadelphia. PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 2, 1844.

"Mr. Bennett's Roman Catholic Philadelphia Correspondent," has caused, it would seem, considerable trouble to the two Native papers here, the 'Native American," and the "American Advocate," for writing simply what every body knows to be the truth. I have no desire to injure either Mr. Augustus de Kalb Tarr, or Gen. Peter Sken Smith, in the estimation of their brother Natives, but must insist that both desired office, and thus far, both are sadly disappointed; and farther, that Mr. Augustus de Kalb Tarr has boldly and publicly but must insist that both desired office, and thus far, both are sadly disappointed; and farther, that Mr. Augustus de Kalb Tarr has boldly and publicly threatened, not only to expose certain candidates upon the City Assembly ticket, but even to demolish Mr. Levin, in case he is nominated for Congress from the First District! Deny that, and you shall hear more.

The whigs are likely to have trouble in the formation of their ticket after ail, from the fact that John M. Scott has declined to stand any nomination they may tender him. He has bolted from State Senator. Try it again.

The Captain of the brig Mary Jane, of St. George, Maine, was robbed yesterday of about $200 in bank notes, by Charles Miller, the cook, it is supposed, as he has cleared out.

A desperate fight occurred last evening between two negroes, Samuel Fulbert and John Harty, in Gillis' alley, in the lower part of the city, during which the former seized an axe and inflicted a dreadful gash in the head of Harty, just above the eye, from which the blood flowed copiously. He was taken to the hospital, where his situation is very precarious. Fulbert has been committed.
